Saiber Welcomes Christopher Shanahan to the Firm

March 15, 2021

Saiber is pleased to welcome associate Christopher Shanahan, who joined the firm's Business Services practice group. Chris joins the firm after several years in private practice, where he represented his clients in a range of corporate law matters.

Before joining Saiber, Chris spent over two years as an associate in a New York-based law firm where he represented clients in a host of transactional, governance, employment and other business law matters. Prior to entering private practice, Chris served as Counsel/Compliance Manager of a multinational construction and development company. Upon graduation, Chris served as law clerk to the Hon. Michael V. Cresitello, Jr., in the Superior Court of New Jersey. During law school, Chris externed for both the Department of Homeland Security and New York State Office of the Attorney General.
