

Jaime Rivera to Speak at the 2024 IAGA International Gaming Summit

May 30, 2024

On Thursday, May 30th, Jaime Rivera will participate in a panel discussion entitled “Gaming from a Global Perspective” at the 41st annual IAGA International Gaming Summit in Washington, D.C. The panel will explore everything from the pending Irish gaming legislation, PAGCOR’s transition to a ‘regulator only’ in the Philippines, changes happening within Australia and more. Joining Jaime is moderator Edward Winkofsky of Greenberg Traurig, Wil Byrne of Wilton Capital; Jessica Maier of Executive Gaming and Risk Advisory; Anthony Pearl of Crown Resorts; and Alon Segev of Segev LLP.

The IAGA International Gaming Summit is a premier event that brings together leaders from all global gaming sectors. The Summit will provide operators, suppliers, attorneys, investors, bankers, regulators and other advisor delegates with an unparalleled opportunity to meet and discuss the most important issues facing gaming.
