Jakob B. Halpern represents clients in corporate, commercial, complex and multi-party litigation with an emphasis on intellectual property, employment, competition law, and professional malpractice matters, predominantly before the federal courts. He also counsels clients regarding intellectual property rights and employment issues.

Jake's clients range from well-known consumer brands and pharmaceutical companies to local businesses and individuals, and he has represented and counseled clients in diversified industries including pharmaceutical and healthcare, medical and chemical products, communications, insurance, distributorships, gaming, supermarkets and retailers, consumer electronic products, clothing and footwear, automotive, real estate, and other service and product industries.

Prior to joining Saiber, Jake clerked for the Hon. William Matthew Byrne, Jr., on the United States District Court for the Central District of California, following a year as a litigation associate at a prominent D.C. law firm. He has also served as producer on a successful cable television news program.
