Piel A. Lora focuses her practice in the areas of insurance coverage and business litigation. Piel joins the firm after working as an associate at a Morris County law firm where she drafted coverage opinions on a variety of claims including bodily injury, homeowners, molestation, personal and commercial automobile, and professional liability. She also helped defend insurance companies and insureds on breach of contract, insurance coverage, premises liability, construction defect and professional malpractice claims.

Prior to joining private practice, Piel clerked for a year with the Hon. Thomas W. Sumners, Jr., in the Appellate Division and served as a judicial intern for U.S. District Judge William J. Martini while in law school. She is admitted in NJ and NY.
