

Piel Lora to Speak at Rutgers Law School MSP's Private Practice Panel

August 6, 2019

On Tuesday, August 6, Piel Lora will participate in a Private Practice panel at Rutgers Law School for the Minority Student Program's (MSP) orientation for incoming law students. The discussion will focus on the panelists' career path upon graduating from law school and their experience in private practice.

The Minority Student Program (MSP) is a nationally-acclaimed and highly successful post-admissions program that serves students of any race or ethnicity who are members of groups that are underrepresented in the legal profession, and who have faced discrimination or overcome social and economic hardships. The program takes a proactive approach to help students to succeed in law school by offering legal skills development, academic support, alumni mentoring and networking, internships and other opportunities.
