

Jeremy Kleiman to Speak at the 2019 Central & Eastern European Gaming Conference

September 24, 2019

On Tuesday, September 24th, Jeremy Kleiman will participate in a panel discussion at the 2019 Central and Eastern European Gaming Conference and Awards entitled “IMGL MasterClass™: Opportunities in Asia and North America.”

The Central and Eastern European Gaming Conference and Awards was launched in 2016 with the aim of bringing together gambling industry professionals, executives, and government representatives. Each year, 125+ delegates have the opportunity to discuss collaboration opportunities, learn about compliance updates and harvest the tech & marketing related information which is presented by industry leaders from the ever-evolving international gambling industry community.

Location:

The Ritz-Carlton
Budapest, Hungary