WOMEN, WINE & WILLS

What Every Woman Should Know About Estate Planning

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2019

18 Columbia Turnpike, Suite 200, Florham Park, NJ

6:00 – 6:30 pm Wine reception

6:30 – 7:30 pm Estate planning
seminar and Q&A

Women are the executives in the planning of short and long-term issues related to their households. From the day-to-day spending, to long-range financial and estate planning, women serve as money, schedule and wellness managers. These responsibilities make it essential for every woman to understand how to best position herself and her family for the future.

Join Saiber attorney Mary Joan Kennedy, Esq. for an informal, free estate planning seminar designed specifically for women. As part of this seminar, Mary Joan will discuss:

- ⌚ When should you create a will? (Hint: now!)
- ⌚ Is this a woman's Issue? Yes, statistically women live longer than men.
- ⌚ What is your Estate? Where are your assets and how should they be distributed?
- ⌚ Living Wills: It's not just a form, it's personal.
- ⌚ Aging parents? It's not a sprint; it's a marathon.
- ⌚ Minor children? Making your intentions known.

Wine and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Please RSVP by November 8, 2019 to tough@saiber.com
