

Jack Losinger to Co-Moderate ABA Roundtable Discussion on Client Communication

October 29, 2020

On Thursday, October 29th, Jack Losinger of Saiber LLC and Ben Barnes of Reid Collins & Tsai will co-moderate a roundtable discussion entitled “Outreach Best Practices: Staying ‘Virtually’ Connected To The People Who Matter.” Jack and Ben will be joined by Kiran Nagulapalli, Assistant General Counsel at SGS; Kelly Vickers, Associate General Counsel at Kimberly Clark; and Bruce Alltop, a principal at LawVision.

The panelists will discuss the ways attorneys have been keeping their relationships thriving during the pandemic and will offer some best practices on how attorneys can deepen existing relationships and build new ones given the current constraints on in-person meetings. The Roundtable is sponsored by the ABA Section of Litigation’s Business Torts and Unfair Competition Committee and is free to members and non-members.
