

John August to Moderate a Panel Discussion on Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors

January 14, 2021

On Thursday, January 14, John August will moderate a webinar panel discussion entitled “Assignments for the Benefits of Creditors” for the New Jersey Institute of CLE. The panel will discuss current market projections, how to navigate creditor-dictated wind-down terms and constrained financial maneuverability, how to help clients avoid reduced asset value, and how to handle various situations that typically arise with distressed businesses today.
