

DanaLynn Colao and Jack Losinger to Moderate Panel Discussion for the NJSBA's Higher Education Committee

April 13, 2021

On Tuesday, April 13th, DanaLynn Colao and Jack Losinger will moderate a panel discussion entitled "Lessons Learned in 2020: Moving Forward in Higher Education after a Pandemic" for the New Jersey State Bar Association's Higher Education Committee. The panel, comprised in-house counsel of universities and colleges, will discuss lessons learned and best practices to minimize risk, motivate employees and enhance the work environment.

Joining DanaLynn and Jack is Mark Solomon of Rider University, Maria Anderson of Montclair State University, John Hoffman of Rutgers University, and Angela Maxam of Princeton University.