

Jack Losinger to Co-Moderate ABA Roundtable Discussion on Using Experts in Business Litigation

May 25, 2021

On Tuesday, May 25th, Jack Losinger of Saiber LLC and Ben Barnes of Kirkland & Ellis will co-moderate an ABA roundtable discussion entitled “Effectively Using Experts Early in Business Litigation.” Jack and Ben will be joined by panelists: Hon. Deanne Wilson (ret.), former Presiding Judge of General Equity for the New Jersey Superior Court for Morris and Sussex Counties; Abel Teshome of Ankura; Brian Esler of Miller Nash Graham & Dunn LLP; and Brandon Lewis of Reid Collins.

The panelists will discuss the strategic advantages of retaining and actively using an expert from the outset of your case. The Roundtable is sponsored by the ABA Section of Litigation’s Business Torts and Unfair Competition Committee and is free to members and non-members.
