

Rob Nussbaum to Present on Social Media & the Law at MetroBCA Seminar

October 18, 2022

On Tuesday, October 18th, Rob Nussbaum will present on Social Media & the Law at the Metropolitan Builders & Contractors Association of New Jersey's October breakfast briefing at the Park Avenue Club in Florham Park, NJ. The presentation will explore the nature and growth of social media, how it has created new ways for people to communicate and, consequently, how it was created new legal concerns.

Topics discussed include Do's and Don'ts of social media; legislation affecting social media; litigation considerations; jury duty concerns and issues; how to introduce social media into evidence at trial; the need to avoid destroying potential social media evidence; ethical concerns; and how the First Amendment has been applied to social media cases.
