

CLA's Advisory Board welcomes new member

William (Bill) Maderer is managing member of Saiber LLC of Florham Park and Newark, N.J.

He specializes in higher education law, employment and complex business litigation, corporate investigations, and white-collar criminal defense.

Before entering private practice, Bill was an assistant U.S. attorney and chief of the Special Prosecution Division, U.S. Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey.

Bill has successfully tried employment, business and criminal cases in both federal and state courts, including cases involving higher education employee and student claims. He has also been retained by universities to conduct independent investigations relating to employee misconduct and compliance issues. Bill is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

In October 2012, Bill moderated the New Jersey State Bar Association's Higher Education Committee conference on "Lessons Learned from Penn State: A Comprehensive Review of University Practices and Responsibilities in the Aftermath of the Sandusky Sex Abuse Scandal."

He has spoken on a variety of other panels and has authored articles on higher education and trial practice. Bill is an affiliate member of the National Association of College and University Attorneys. ■