

Saiber LLC and Weltman & Moskowitz Announce Counsel Relationship

January 25, 2015

Saiber LLC, a New Jersey-based business law firm, has announced the formation of an affiliation with Weltman & Moskowitz, LLP, a creditor's rights, bankruptcy and commercial litigation boutique law firm based in New York and New Jersey. This arrangement allows Saiber to draw upon the talents of the attorneys at Weltman & Moskowitz and for Weltman & Moskowitz and its clients to benefit from the resources, expertise, and experience of Saiber attorneys. The Weltman & Moskowitz partners, Richard E. Weltman, Michael L. Moskowitz, and associates, Michele K. Jaspán and Melissa A. Guseynov will be Counsel at Saiber. Both firms will remain independent.

With offices in New York City, Long Island, and New Jersey, Weltman & Moskowitz will help serve Saiber's clients with bankruptcy, foreclosure, and creditor's rights needs in New York, New Jersey and beyond. Conversely, Saiber's professionals will provide additional legal benefits to clients of Weltman & Moskowitz.

"Weltman & Moskowitz brings to Saiber a team of attorneys committed to providing personalized attention and the highest quality legal representation," said William F. Maderer, managing member of Saiber. "This new relationship provides the opportunity to continue Saiber's growth with top-notch creditor's rights and bankruptcy attorneys in New Jersey, New York, and Long Island, geographical areas that are important to our clients."

"Building solid referral relationships is what we do, so this affiliation makes perfect sense for our firm and our clients," said Richard E. Weltman, co-managing partner of Weltman & Moskowitz. "Our clients will benefit from Saiber's depth and breadth of experience in New Jersey, particularly in the areas of complex business litigation, appeals, internal investigations, white collar defense, labor and employment law, estate planning, and 2 commercial transactions. We are excited to be working closely with Saiber and its professionals."
