

Robert Nussbaum Profiled as Volunteer of the Month by VLJ

October 17, 2018

Saiber Counsel Robert Nussbaum was recently profiled as the Volunteer of the Month by Volunteer Lawyers for Justice (“VLJ”), an organization that provides free legal services to low-income adults, children and families in New Jersey.

In the article, Rob discusses his involvement with VLJ’s Consumer Law Program, where he helps assist low-income consumers who face issues related to debt from car loans, medical debt, unpaid credit card bills, and student loans.

Since 2015, Saiber has provided a range of legal services for VJL, from general legal advice to full representation on a variety of civil legal issues, including debt collection defense and estate planning for military veterans.
