

Saiber Elevates Greg Dennison to Member of the Firm

January 2, 2019

Saiber LLC announced today that Greg Dennison has been elevated to member of the Firm, effective January 1, 2019.

Greg concentrates his practice in insurance coverage law and litigation involving claims in New Jersey and New York. He regularly counsels insurance clients on general and excess liability, pollution liability, professional liability, errors and omissions, employers liability, directors and officers liability and commercial auto insurance products.

Greg received his J.D. from the University of Denver College of Law in 1997 and his B.A. from Lafayette College, with honors, in 1993.