

Saiber Elevates Ami Foger to Member of the Firm

April 24, 2019

Saiber LLC is pleased to announce that Ami Foger has been elevated to member of the Firm, effective April 1, 2019.

Ami practices in Saiber's Business Services Practice Group. He provides counsel to businesses in a variety of industry sectors, including consumer products, apparel, food services, energy, pharmaceuticals and technology on a wide range of transactional matters, including commercial contracts, mergers and acquisitions, data security and advanced technologies and corporate governance.

“We are thrilled to welcome Ami Foger to the Firm’s membership,” said William F. Maderer, Saiber’s Managing Member. “Ami has proven to be a talented lawyer who is focused on providing exceptional client service.”

Prior to joining the Firm in 2017, Ami served as counsel in private practice at top regional law firm. Most recently, Ami was named as a "New Leader of the Bar" by the New Jersey Law Journal, an award that recognizes attorneys who have left a mark on the profession through consistent excellence in his or her career by moving the law forward, achieving significant litigation results, or otherwise making an impact.

Ami received his J.D. from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in 2007 (summa cum laude) and his B.A. from Rutgers University in 2003.
