

Robert Nussbaum Featured in MetroBuilders' Construction Law Column Member Spotlight: November 2025

November 5, 2025

Saiber's Robert Nussbaum has been featured in MetroBuilders' Construction Law Column Member Spotlight for its October/November edition. Robert's feature includes highlights of his 38-year career as a litigation and trial attorney and his active involvement with the Metropolitan Builders and Contractors Association.

Key highlights from the feature include:

-

Nearly four decades of experience practicing construction law, including handling defect claims, contract drafting, and personal injury defense.

-

Leadership roles within MetroBuilders, serving on the Board, chairing the Membership Committee, and contributing a regular legal column to OnSite magazine.

-

Saiber's celebration of its 75th anniversary through the "75 Acts of Kindness" initiative, focusing on community service and volunteerism.

-

Insights on collaboration, professional growth, and key issues impacting today's building industry.

To read more about Robert's feature, please click here.