On December 19, 2025, Saiber's Justin Calta will serve as a judge for the "Pitch NJ Contest," a business pitch competition that showcases the entrepreneurial ideas of young innovators from across New Jersey.

Hosted by the Morris County Chamber of Commerce and held at Fairleigh Dickinson University, the event will feature student teams presenting their pitches to a distinguished panel of business professionals representing a range of industries. Participants will gain invaluable feedback from real-world experts and have the opportunity to share their ideas before an audience of family members, mentors, and local employers, making this both an educational experience and a celebration of innovation.
