

DanaLynn Colao Named Among NJBIZ's 2026 Leaders in Law Honorees

February 6, 2026

Saiber employment law and higher education attorney DanaLynn Colao has been named as a NJBIZ 2026 “Leaders in Law” honoree. Honorees were chosen by a panel of independent judges with experience in the justice system. The selections were based on legal professionals — lawyers and general counsels — whose dedication to their occupation and to their communities is outstanding. Honorees will be showcased at a reception on March 31st at The Marigold in Somerset.

DanaLynn’s practice focuses on employment and labor issues, contract matters, higher education, school law, and professional liability. She counsels clients on a wide range of workplace issues, litigates on their behalf, and conducts comprehensive investigations for both public and private clients. She received her B.A. from American University and her J.D. from Seton Hall School of Law.

NJBIZ Leaders in Law list is published by BridgeTower Media. Chosen by a panel of independent judges experienced in the justice system, honorees were selected based on their “outstanding dedication to their occupation and to their communities.” A description of the selection process may be accessed here. No aspect of this advertisement has been submitted to or approved by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.