

Peter Kizima Recognized as a Rising Star in NJBIZ's 2026 Forty Under 40 Awards

September 4, 2026

Saiber associate Peter Kizima has been named as a Rising Star in NJBIZ 2026 "Forty Under 40" awards program. Rising Star winners are 29 or younger with seven years or less of professional experience, and show extraordinary potential to become an industry leader in the years ahead. Winners are selected by an independent panel of judges, primarily consisting of prior-year honorees. Honorees will be showcased at a reception on October 27th at The Marigold in Somerset.

Peter Kizima is an associate in Saiber's Business Services Practice Group, where he assists in representing businesses and individuals across a wide range of transactional matters, including commercial contracts, real estate transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, land use and zoning, and general business counseling.

NJBIZ Forty Under 40 is published by BridgeTower Media. A description of the selection process may be accessed here. No aspect of this advertisement has been submitted to or approved by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.
