

The Garden State Law Podcast: Do you need an Estate Plan?

August 23, 2023

While many people work hard to save for retirement and plan for the future, many also neglect one of the most important components of long-term planning: having an estate plan. Join estate planning attorney Mary Joan Kennedy in a candid discussion on why it is critical for people of all ages to consider having an estate plan.