

Trending Law Blog: Know Your Rights

July 13, 2018

In the latest post by Trending Law Blog, Rob Nussbaum looks at how some states and the federal government have tried to address privacy concerns raised when employers and schools demand that employees, students, and job and school applicants turn over passwords to their social media accounts.

To read the post, click here.