

New Jersey Cannabis Counsel: New Jersey Appellate Panel Confirms Towns Right to Regulate Cannabis Licenses

April 2, 2024

In a post by New Jersey Cannabis Counsel, Justin Calta and Michael Grohs highlight a recent decision by the New Jersey Appellate Division that affirmed a trial court's ruling which allowed a town to deny a retail cannabis business to operate, determining that the municipality has the discretion to decide the necessary requirements for any cannabis retail businesses, and which cannabis retail businesses it chooses to support.

To read the post, click here.