

Trending Law Blog: Arkansas “Social Media Safety Act” Ruled Unconstitutional

April 30, 2025

A federal court has struck down Arkansas’s “Social Media Safety Act” as unconstitutional. The law, aimed at restricting minors’ access to social media, was ruled a content-based restriction on speech and unconstitutionally vague. Rob Nussbaum explores in his most recent Trending Law Blog post. To read, click here.